I. QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

SPECIALIST OF AIDED PRIMARY SCHOOLS—PAY WHILE ON DEPUTATION

182. Mr. K. T. Achuthan (Ezhuvas-Mukundapuram): Will Government be pleased to answer.—

(a) how many specialists from the aided primary schools are deputed to Government primary schools;

(b) are they given pay for the work they do in the Government schools, irrespective of the question of grants to the respective classes of those teachers in the aided schools;

(c) are they not given proportionate dearness allowance for the work they do in the Government schools as Government servants;

(d) have the specialists to receive the pay from the Government schools directly instead of from the aided schools for the work in the Government schools;

(e) if not, why it is so?

Mr. P. Govinda Menon (Minister for Food and Education):

(a) 45.

(b) Pay is given by the Managers and pay for the portion of their work in Sirkar schools is given by Government to the Managers concerned, if the post is aided.

(c) No. No special consideration is shown for their work in Sirkar schools.

(d) No.

(e) There is no provision in therules. Their appointment is in aided schools and, therefore their pay cannot be disbursed directly from Government schools.

Mr. P. Govinda Menon (Minister for Food and Education) : The answer to sub-division (c) has to be changed in view of subsequent developments. The amended answer is "(c) The question of proportionate dearness allowance to specialists of aided primary schools on deputation to Government primary schools does not arise since full dearness allowance is now given to aided primary school teachers."

Mr. K. T. Achuthan (Ezhuvas-Mukundapuram): May I know if a teacher from aided school is taken to Government school, will he be paid dearness allowance?

Mr. P. Govinda Menon (Minister for Food and Education): Yes, because at present teachers in all primary schools are given full dearness allowance.

Mr. K. T. Achuthan (Ezhuvas-Mukudapuram): Unaided classes?

Mr. P. Govinda Menon (Minister for Food and Education): Not in unaided classes.

Mr. K. T. Achuthan (Ezhuvas-Mukundapuram): If a teacher of an unaided class is taken to Government school. will he be paid dearness allowance?

Mr. P. Govinda Menon (Minister for Food and Education): That question will be considered.
